The screenshot shows the Microsoft Word interface. The title bar reads "Le corbeau et le renard.docx - Microsoft Word". The ribbon includes tabs for Home, Insert, Page Layout, References, Mailings, Review, View, Add-Ins, and SIL Converters. The Home tab is active, showing the Font, Paragraph, and Styles groups. The Font group shows "Calibri (Body)" and "11". The Paragraph group shows various alignment and spacing options. The Styles group shows "Quick Styles" and "Change Styles".

The document content is a poem:

Maître Corbeau, sur un arbre perché,
Tenait en son bec un fromage.
Maître Renard, par l'odeur alléché,
Lui tint à peu près ce langage :

The Styles pane is open on the right, showing a list of styles: "Clear All", "pr", "q", and "q2". The "q" style is selected. Below the list are checkboxes for "Show Preview" and "Disable Linked Styles", and an "Options..." button.

The status bar at the bottom shows "Page: 1 of 5", "Words: 141", "French (France)", and "148%".
